

SHARE Atlanta's angel garden

Families receive a program and sign our guest book.

Friends from long ago revisit and remember.

SHARE Atlanta's angel embraces the beautiful fall day.

Amon's vibraphone sings peaceful feelings.

SHARE Atlanta families and guests share together.

Amon's gentle music reflects our love for our children.

Amon begins our program with "Breathe of Light."

Todd reads "A Small Boy."

Leah, Braxton and Kyle light a candle in memory of every baby.

Pam and Karen read "No Heartbeat."

Pete joins Valerie as she reads "The Touch of an Angel"

Paula, Brian, Vincent and Nikecia place the roses of honor.

Jennifer reads "Stitch by Stitch."

Karen reads "My Precious Jonathan."

Polly reads "You Never Knew."

Parents participate in the litany ceremony.

White, pink and yellow rose petals help bring us peace.

Our babies are remembered and honored by name.

Each child and family is special.

Each family receives a candle memento.

Quiet reflection....

Our litany ceremony comes to a close...our hearts are full.

Roary and LaWanda read "Indelible."

Bubbles fill the air with their childlike beauty...

Parents share, "The balloons lift my heart and spirit.."

...Our babies will be forever in hearts.. .

SHARE Atlanta wishes you hope, peace, and healing.
